

ALESUND- BERGEN

ALESUND-BERGEN ROAD BOOK.

We organise it, you enjoy it.

Suggested itinerary

Your trip to Norway will start with the incredible and iconic town of Ålesund, which you will discover on foot and by kayak through its canals. The next day, you'll head to Norway's most beautiful fjords, staying in Geiranger Fjord.

And you'll finish your trip in Bergen, one of Norway's most authentic and cultural capitals.

We offer a programme that can be fully adapted to your needs and tastes, and to the number of days you have available to enjoy Norway.

How does it work?

We prepare a complete roadbook with all the information you need to make the most of your holiday in Norway: what to see, which roads to take, what to visit at each point of interest... We'll also take care of your rental car (which you can collect from the airport), hotel bookings during your trip and some of the activities on offer. If you would also like us to arrange air tickets or other optional activities, we can do that too (please note that air tickets and activities are not included in the basic price of the programme, and will therefore be budgeted for separately).

DAY 1 ARRIVAL IN ALESUND
DAY 2 VISIT TO ALESUND

Famous for its art nouveau architecture, the city of Ålesund is the cultural centre of the region.

Stroll through the streets of one of Norway's most unique cities... or explore the city by water.

Kayak the fantastic Brosundet Canal, which runs through the city centre.

Kayaking the fjord is an experience that takes you into nature and allows you to interact closely with it.

DAY BY DAY IN DETAIL

DAY 3. ROAD TRIP BY CAR BETWEEN ALESUND AND GEIRANGER. ACCOMMODATION IN GEIRANGER

Route Alesund-Geiranger: (2.3 h. incl. ferry)

The attraction of this route is as much in the journey as the destination. To get to Geiranger Fjord we pass the impressive Trollstigen (Trollstigen). The road has eleven 180° bends with a 9% gradient. The maximum height is 858 metres above sea level. It was inaugurated in 1936 by King Haavkon VII.

The road continues towards the deep Geiranger Fjord, which was declared a World Heritage Site in 2005. On the way you can stop at the Gudbrandsjuvet waterfall.

Continue along road 63 to Linge where you take a ferry to Eidsdal. About 15 minutes on the ferry and then continue by road to Geiranger, the final destination of this stage.

Spend the rest of the day in Geiranger, where you can drive up the road to the mountain pass to see the views of the fjord from there. It is worth it!

Please note: This road could be closed due to snow (in May you never know...). In this case you will have to modify the route and look for alternative routes through the valleys (and it means taking more railways). Normally, they open at the end of April/May.

DAY 4. ROAD TRIP BY CAR BETWEEN GEIRANGER and BERGEN ACCOMMODATION IN BERGEN

Geiranger-Bergen route: (8 hours, including ferry)

The route to Bergen will take about 8 hours, including time on two ferries.

The first one you take in the village of Geiranger itself, a short trip across the Storfjord in the village of Hellesylt. A 1,30 min. ferry ride. From there, you continue by road in the direction of Hella. After about 3 hours drive you will pass Olden before arriving in Hella.

You can take a detour to see the Briksdal Glacier. It takes about 25 minutes to enter the glacier. And on a short excursion you can see this amazing place.

You can take the Kaupanger ferry and do a stretch through the Fjord of Dreams (Sognefjord) to Gudvangen or continue by road and see the famous Flan waterfalls. Here too, you will be conditioned by road conditions.
